

SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW...

Turns out this old adage ensures good luck for more than just weddings.

This is the Grizzly Giant in Yosemite. It's just a wee bit younger than the Roman Empire.

Not all trees are this old, but most of 'em are at least older than you are, so go hug one and soak up its wisdom.

So, there's your something old.

These are the new Salomon OUTline GTX. They're built on a running shoe last, so they're lightweight and comfy like a sneaker, while still rugged and grippy for the backcountry. Plus, they're made with GORE-Tex so they're super waterproof!

And there's your something new.

Something borrowed? No problem. Our camping rentals make hitting the trail easier than it's ever been. Our car camping package includes all the gear you need, up to camping forks and spoons. In fact, it's easier to tell you what this kit doesn't include than to get into it all. So here's your complete 2-day car camping packing list:

- ☐ SB 2-person Car Camping Package
- ☐ Hiking clothes, sleep clothes, socks & boots (basically all the stuff you wear)
- ☐ Camping food (don't forget the s'mores!)
- ☐ Water bottles, ice & water
- ☐ Sunscreen & bug repellent
- ☐ Matches or other firestarter
- ☐ First aid kit
- ☐ Bathroom kit (toothbrush/toothpaste, towels, shampoo, action wipes, all that jazz)
- ☐ Activities! (Games, music, stuff like that)
- ☐ Propane (and we can help with that too)

Leave the something blue for the nuptials - we're after something green,

and there are few things greener than our refillable propane program! Basementeers who buy one of our refillable propane canisters (we sell 'em at cost) can get free propane refills whenever they want. Seriously. So far, our program has saved about 10,800 propane canisters from the landfill, and our Basementeers have saved over $12,000 besides.
